

ACFI Subsidy rates 20 March 2008 – 30 June 2008

1. Daily ACFI subsidy rates

Level	Activities of daily living (ADL)	Behaviour Supplement (BEH)	Complex Health Care Supplement (CHC)
Nil	0.00	0.00	0.00
Low	28.56	6.53	12.85
Medium	62.22	13.54	36.62
High	86.19	28.51	52.87

2. Maximum Daily ACFI subsidy rate

The subsidy paid for a resident will be the lesser of the sum of the amounts payable for the three care domains (ADL + BEH + CHC) and the maximum ACFI rate. The maximum ACFI rate is $135.23.

The maximum ACFI rate will progressively increase as follows:

20 March 2008 to 30 June 2009	$10 more than RCS1 rate (as indexed)
1 July 2009 to 30 June 2010	$20 more than RCS1 rate (as indexed)
1 July 2010 to 30 June 2011	$30 more than RCS1 rate (as indexed)
1 July 2011 onwards	Uncapped (ie full ACFI rate payable)

3. Maximum rate paid for a resident with an ACAT Low Approval

The maximum daily subsidy for a resident with an ACAT approval limited to Low Care, but whose ACFI classification would otherwise be High Care is $43.15 per day.

4. Default rate for a new resident with an ACAT Low approval

For a new resident that has an ACAT approval limited to Low Care, the payments system will not make any care subsidy payments until an Application for Classification is received by Medicare Australia. Payments will be backdated as appropriate when the application is received.

5. Default rate for a new resident with an ACAT High (not limited) approval

For a new resident with an ACAT approval that is not limited to Low Care, the payments system will pay a care subsidy rate of $43.15 per day until an Application for Classification is received by Medicare Australia. Payments will be backdated as appropriate when the application is received.

6. Daily RCS rates for existing and/or grandparented residents

RCS classification level	Full amount ($)	Reduced amount for late applications ($)
